

Calling Year 8 & 9! We want YOU for Buddy Reading!

- Do YOU love reading?
- Do YOU want an opportunity to develop in a leadership role whilst helping others?
- Do YOU want a fantastic addition to your CV, that helps you stand out to jobs and universities?
- If YOU said yes to just one of these questions, then YOU should sign up to Buddy Reading!

1. When is Buddy Reading?

Buddy Reading is twice a week in the library, during tutor time (the days can vary). It will start when you return in September.

2. What is Buddy Reading?

Buddy Reading is when you are paired up with a student in the year below, and you read aloud together in a quiet space.

3. What is the aim of Buddy Reading?

To help develop the reading skills of younger students as well as yourself in a nurturing environment, whilst adding to your CV.

4. How do I sign up to Buddy Reading?

To put your name forward: you need to come to the English office, just on the right before FE7, and add your name to the sign up sheet.

5. Does Buddy Reading count towards the volunteering section of your Duke of Edinburgh award?

Yes! This scheme qualifies as your volunteering for both bronze and silver DofE!

Buddy Reading is a fantastic opportunity to develop and improve; we look forward to working with YOU in September!
