

Year 11 History Health and the People Curriculum Summary

Topic	Enquiries and focus Interim assessment / marked work / homework	Formal Assessment
The Middle Ages, c1000- 1500: medicine stands still	1) Written question on the significance of Hippocratic and Galenic medicine after c1000 AD. 2) Written question on the significance of religion in medicine during the Middle Ages Marked Homework 3) Source work on the usefulness of a source studying beliefs about diseases in the Middle Ages	Formal assessment: knowledge test and GCSE questions
Renaissance Britain: c1500 – 1800: the beginning of change	1) Written question on the significance of the work of Andreas Vesalius 2) Written question on the significance of the work of William Harvey – Marked Homework 3) Written question on the similarities of Andreas Vesalius and John Hunter 4) Written question on the similarities of the Black Death and the Great Plague	Formal assessment: knowledge test and GCSE questions
Disease and Infection – c1800 – 1900: a revolution in medicine c1900 to today: modern medicine	1) Written question on the significance of the work of Louis Pasteur 2) Written question on the similarities between the work of Louis Pasteur and Robert Koch – Marked Homework 3) Written essay explaining whether Science and Technology has been the main factor in improving the treatment of disease	Formal assessment: knowledge test and GCSE questions
Surgery and Anatomy- c1800 – 1900: a revolution in medicine c1900 to today: modern medicine	1) Source work on the usefulness of a source studying surgery in the late 19 th century – Marked homework 2) Written question on the similarities between the opposition to vaccination and the opposition to using anaesthetics 3) Written question on the significance of the work of Joseph Lister in the development of surgery	Formal assessment: knowledge test and GCSE questions
Public Health - c1800 – 1900: a revolution in medicine c1900 to today: modern medicine	1) Written question on the similarities between the Black Death in the Middle Ages and the Cholera epidemics in the 19 th century 2) Source question on the usefulness of a source studying the creation of the NHS 3) Written essay explaining whether the role of the Individual has been the main factor in the development of Public Health – Marked homework	Formal assessment: knowledge test and GCSE questions