

BTEC International Level 3 Hospitality

Who is this course for?

This course is for anyone who has an interest in Hospitality, Catering or Tourism. These industries can lead you to many different job opportunities around the world. The course is 50% based on practical cooking skills. If you enjoy cooking, working independently, travel, are highly organised and want to develop transferable skills this might be the course for you.

What will I study?

you will study different units focusing on

- The Hospitality Industry and how it is structured and its current scale and job opportunities.
- The impact of the industry on the environment and its sustainability.
- Customer Service Provision in Hospitality
- And how to make a wide variety of dishes and how to develop menus.

How will I be assessed

Some units are mandatory and externally assessed and optional units are internally assessed. A summative unit grade can be awarded at pass, merit or distinction. To achieve a 'pass' a learner must have satisfied all the pass assessment criteria. To achieve a 'merit' a learner must additionally have satisfied all the merit grading criteria. To achieve a 'distinction' a learner must additionally have satisfied all the distinction grading criteria.

Course entry requirements

To study this course you'll need 5 GCSEs at grade 4 (C) or above, including English, and Maths at grade 5 (B) or above. Having studied Hospitality and Catering or Food and Nutrition at KS4 would be an advantage, or a part time job in the industry.

What can I do with this qualification?

The course provides a foundation from which to access higher education and more specialist courses allied to the Hospitality sector. This could be hospitality degrees offered by universities or more vocational, work-based, learning via apprenticeships. Or it could be work within the industry.
